man People Will Finally Knock Out Militarism.

London, Nov. 28.—"The German revolution is permanent and the country will not be allowed to drift into bolshevism," declared Dr. Max Baerberger, state secretary in the new Berlin government. In an interview given to the Rotterdam correspondent of the Daily Mail.

Dr. Baerberger is leader of the central party, and a member of the cabinet. He played an important part in the revolution.

"The revolution," continued Dr. Baerberger, "will bring peace, bread and liberty."

He hopes that other countries will become nervous over our outlook. The German convulsions were caused by the necessity for violent remedies.

"The German people have finally knocked out militarism."

"If the allies were really fighting to defeat militarism, and for a league of nations, world justice and peace, they would do no good to throw salt into the wounds."

"The martyred German people will chain at their task to assist in the democratic reconstruction of the country, and to carry out the terms of the armistice of which I was one of the signers."

MURAT PARIS PALACE TENDERED
AS TEMPORARY WHITE HOUSE*Occupation of This Splendid Parisian Home Can But Recall Many American Historical Reminiscences
Because of the American Connections of the Family.*Prince and Princess Murat

Prince and Princess Joachim Murat, who at the request of the government have placed their town house at 28 Rue de Monceau at the disposal of the French authorities to receive President Wilson during his stay in Paris, according to a dispatch from the French capital. The president will find in the mansion various souvenirs of President Washington, whose niece married Prince Achille Murat. Prince Murat entered the French cavalry at the beginning of the war. During the war one of his sons was killed and another wounded seriously. He is a descendant of Caroline Bonaparte, sister of the great Napoleon. Princess Murat before her marriage was Cecil Noy, Duchess d'Elchingen. If President Wilson makes the Murat residence his home during the Paris trip, it will become, in effect, a new White House.

The offer of this Paris palace to the use of the president seems most appropriate because of the American connection of the family, and can but recall many American reminiscences. The editor of the Nashville Banner gives an interesting sketch of the Murat family, in commenting on the offer of the prince's home to the president, as follows:

The prince is a descendant of Joachim Murat, Napoleon's great cavalry leader. Le Beau Sabreur, whom he married to his sister, Caroline Bonaparte, and made king of Naples. Joachim Murat was the son of an innkeeper, but by the upheaval of the French revolution, his handsome appearance and republican ardor, he rose rapidly in the army.

It was typical of the times in which he lived that from a burning patriot of the revolution, crying for "liberty, equality, fraternity," he became a king and the brother-in-law of an emperor. His descendant, though called a prince, is a citizen of the French republic.

Achille Murat, the eldest son of the original Joachim Murat, came to America in 1821, and lived at Tallahassee, Fla., where he had a large estate and built a mansion. When Lafayette revisited America in 1825 Murat traveled much with him. Lafayette introduced him to Miss Catherine Dudley, of Virginia, a grand-niece of Washington, whom he married. She was one of the old Virginia families, descended from English gentry and of really more aristocratic lineage than either the Bonapartes or Murats, who were of small consequence before the French revolution.

But the Prince Murat who owns the mansion President Wilson may occupy is the son of Napoleon Lucien Charles Murat, the second son of the original Joachim. He also married in America. His wife was Miss Georgine Fraser, an heiress of Bordentown, N. J. After the coup d'etat of 1857 Napoleon III recognized him as a prince of the imperial family, which gave him a pension of 150,000 francs a year and secured the payment of 2,000,000 francs in debts.

The present Prince Joachim Murat is a grandson of Napoleon Lucien Charles and his father was born in America, where his grandfather lived prior to his return to France.

The present Prince Murat, it is said in the dispatches, is married to a descendant of Marshal Ney, an alliance quite reminiscent of the Napoleonic era. The pair appear to have been very patriotic during the recent war; they had one son killed and another wounded while fighting in the French army.

VICTIM OF "YELLOW KID"

Millionaire Steele Man Fleeced Out of $100,000 by Confidence Men.
Chicago, Nov. 28.—Albert A. Charles, multi-millionaire president of the Koko Steel and Wire company, victim of "Yellow Kid" Wells' coterie of swindlers, told here at the trial of Wells, how he assisted the confidence man in buying $150,000 worth of take stock. By convincing him there was a profit of a hundred per cent. in the deal, Wells induced Charles, the latter testified, to loan him $100,000 to buy stock. Then Wells disappeared, and so did the $100,000, Charles testified.

DANIELS SAYS, "LET US WIN A GREATER PEACE"*GERMANY MUST BE DEALT WITH FIRMLY.*Principle, Justice, Mercy to Weak Should Guide Coming Conference.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Deliberations of the coming peace conference should be guided by principle and justice, touched with mercy to the weak and not by passion or emotion, said Secretary Daniels, speaking today at Buffalo's community Thanksgiving service.

"We are here today," said the secretary, "to render thanks to God of all nations for the widest victory ever achieved by the forces of freedom—to take counsel how a peace won by so much valor and sacrifice may long endure—to acclaim with our spirits the brave, dead youths who lie under the white crosses on the plains of France and Flanders, and those who found sepulchre under the sea."

"The allies and the United States having won the war," Mr. Daniels said, "the theory that every man in the world, high or low, rich or poor, shall have a chance to make the most of himself, is now the fixed philosophy of all nations."

"It now remains," he continued, "to make democracy safe for the world by defining its ends, clarifying its purposes and enacting into law its essential ideals. And wherein lies the path to just, honorable and enduring peace. We have won the great war. Let us now proceed to win the greater peace."

Dealt With Firmly.
"Germany must be dealt with firmly by the peace conference," said Mr. Daniels, "because the sins of her rulers and all who follow their spirit are black and bitter, and her crimes deserve such treatment and such punishment as will protect the future."

"But no policy of hatred," he said, "no spirit of vengeance should guide this world renewal. The protection of women and children knows no friends and no enemies. The rebirth of modern civilization should not go forward under any spell of mere revenge or malice to millions of men. Principle and justice, touched with mercy to the weak, should guide this congress, not passion or emotion."

PRESIDENT'S ABSENCEWickersham Believes Would "Constitute Inability to Discharge Duties."

New York, Nov. 28.—Absence of President Wilson from the country would "constitute an inability to discharge the powers and duties of his office," according to an opinion expressed here last night by George W. Wickersham, formerly United States attorney-general, under the Taft administration. He based his opinion on article two, section one, of the federal constitution.

The former attorney-general also maintained that the constitution makes it mandatory upon Vice-President Marshall to assume the office of the president, if Mr. Wilson leaves the United States to attend the peace conference.

"Will the new government dare? These revelations prove that Bavaria was the accomplice of Vienna and Berlin in the famous plot and supported it. The pretense that the people did not support the policy of their government is even more hollow in the case of the Bavarian than the northern states. They had liberal intentions and more political power. Condemned for the war, they never uttered a word of protest until they and other Germans found themselves beaten. None of them needs to hope to shift the blame nor the material penalties for their common crime from their own shoulders to those of their beloved sister states. Germany sinned as a whole, fought as a whole, and she will have to negotiate as a whole and submit as a whole to the terms dictated to her. We are not going to negotiate with chaos."

"Resolved," by the Chattanooga Trades and Labor council, That we join our voice to the millions of others throughout the world in earnest protest against this tragedy and call upon the governor of the state of California to prevent the consummation of the Hunnish plot to the end that justice shall prevail and the faith of the masses in the equity of democracy and its institutions be not shaken. LUNG-VITAFOR COUGHS AND COLDS*COAL*HOME ICE CO.*PHONES:*MAIN 4900 and 1097*Our American Workmen

A country worth fighting for is worth working for! The man who may be driving rivets in a ship or a tank is backing up the boys at the front. It is not on the battlefield alone that this war is being fought. It is waged behind the lines, in the factory, in the workshop, on the farm and in the home as truly as in the trenches. The pale-checked woman at home as well as the workman in the shop feels that lack of "snap" and energy which red blood should bring. Perhaps he or she has had an attack of the influenza, in consequence the blood lacks tone. Perhaps the red blood corpuscles are lacking. Build up the blood with an iron-ionic tablet, called "Irontic," first discovered and made by Dr. Pierce. After taking this tonic table you have good red blood and an active liver, and you can face the enemy successfully—whether it is the germs of grip, a common cold or spring fever. America needs its strong men, and American men need to be strong. Then there is that blood-maker and herbal tonic which has borne the recommendations of many thousands of people during the past fifty years. It is called Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and can be had in tablet form at almost all drug stores at 60 cents a vial. It has the right combination of herbal extracts to bring "pep," vim, vitality and vigor to you. When you have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery Tablets you will feel the red blood coursing through veins and arteries, and you will be surprised to find how easy it is to tackle every "job," every undertaking calling for responsibility or efficiency. The man who takes this tonic tablet has iron nerves for hardships, and an interest in "the drive" grips him. Be sure and ask for Dr. Pierce's.
